Rest of the day is free for shopping or enjoying the lively and spirited city Belgrade is.

Day 6: SKOPJE

A morning city tour of Skopje, a city that was devastated in a massive earthquake in 1963. The city has been undergoing a "total" revival transforming it into the capital of kitsch. Expect the unexpected!

Skopje is also famous for excellent restaurants: we wouldn't like to miss that, neither!

An optional excursion in the afternoon to the exciting countryside around the Macedonian capital, a region that has been featured in so many films because it is one of the rare places that still preserve the original Balkan atmosphere.

The walls of Dubrovnik girdle a perfectly preserved complex of public and private, sacral and secular buildings, representing all the periods of Republic's history, beginning with the town's founding in the 7th century. Particular mention should be made of the main street, Stradun, the Rector's Palace, the church of St Vlaho, the Cathedral, three large monasteries, and the City Hall. Dubrovnik is proud of its culture, its achievements in science, literature and commerce, and especially of its freedom, preserved down so many tempestuous centuries.
